THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
JAMAICA PLAIN FRIENDLY SOCIETY
FOR 1912-1913

Our records show that one hundred and thirteen families have been known to the Society during the year ending October first, 1912. These have all brought their problems, and some have required much time and care.

In April, the new Municipal Building was opened, with its free Swimming Pool and Gymnasium, and the Friendly Society was then permitted to share with the Jamaica Plain Dispensary the use of the old office which we had occupied for many years before the fire of December, 1908.

We were very glad to move to this more commodious room, which is also easy of access from all parts of our district.

A telephone, which had become a great necessity, has been installed in our office, and this has been of the utmost assistance in enabling our agent to communicate easily with the many charitable organizations, hospitals, etc., whose co-operation we frequently desire and need.

Our agent, Miss Le Roy, has been at the office on four mornings of the week, and the Case Committee has met with her on Thursday mornings, for conference and discussion. At this meeting, also, any friends interested in special cases, or in the general work have been welcome.

We have had very cordial co-operation with the clergymen, both Protestant and Catholic, and with various local organizations for charitable work, besides generous aid from individuals in special cases. The Jamaica Plain Dispensary has been very helpful in answering our requests for aid in cases of tuberculosis, and many patients have been sent to the Boston Dispensary and various hospitals for examination and treatment.

The nurse from the Boston Hospital for Consumptives for this district has attended our weekly meetings, and we have also been in frequent touch with our local district nurse. All of this help and co-operation is most sincerely appreciated by the agent and the Case Committee.

The Committee, however, very earnestly desires to see a stronger interest throughout this community in the work which the Society is trying to do for the poor and unfortunate. It is probably well understood that the giving of material aid is but a small part of this work. We need very much more volunteers to follow up the investigations of the agent by friendly visiting. Are there not many in this community who might join our small number of workers in this way? Is it too much to ask that each of our local churches shall furnish at least one or two such visitors during the coming year? Very little is asked of each one, but this friendly relationship with our families is often of untold benefit to them, and it may also prove a great satisfaction to the one who visits.

To several needy women who could be best helped in this way, sewing has been given, the prepared work being furnished by the Massachusetts Children's Hospital. This department has been under the efficient charge of Miss Mary F. Gill, who has met these women on Monday mornings, from November to May.

Our solicitors will begin their annual collection of subscriptions in November, and we hope for a generous response to their calls, that we may begin the new year with a full treasury.

Several of our loyal friends and most generous givers have died during the last two years, so that we need the interest and support of new friends to make up for these great losses.

We feel sure that the more Jamaica Plain people become acquainted with the aims and methods of our work, and the great need of its continuance, the more ready they will be to give us their aid and co-operation in all possible ways.

Miss Cornelia Le Roy has given the Society a year of faithful and valuable service as our agent, and we regret very much that she has been obliged to give up her position with us, but we have been fortunate in securing Miss Isabel C. Brown, who has also been trained in the School for Social Workers, to take her place, and she began her work with us in September.

The statistics given below from the agent's records will show the many kinds of cases which have come to us in the past year, and some of the work which has been done for them.

ELLEN C. MORSE,

For Case Committee.
